Ream Family

Adam Ream (IV) had six children. Among them was a daughter, Cassandra (1806-1862), who married David Clark (1807-1856), and a son, Adam Ruth Ream (1823-1899). The latter also had a son, Adam Jacob Ream who married Lalina Fry. They were the donors of the Ream Memorial Lutheran Church, Denver, Pa.

Additional information can now (1976) be obtained from

Mrs. Shirley Lee
Secretary - Treasurer
Ream Family Organization
P.O. Box 202
Reamstown, Pa. 17567

* * *

Partial genealogies of several of the families of settlers in the present Denver-Reamstown area of Lancaster County are given in the "History of Denver", third edition, Mrs. W.A. Heisey, editor (414 South 4th St., Denver, Pa. 17517). The six different families listed are those founded by Abraham Brubacher (Brubaker) (1731-1811), Hans Bucher (1681-1762), Michael Bear (died 1770), Abraham Kurtz (1754-1799), Eberhard Ream (born 1684), and Franz Ruth (1750-1808)

M. Russell Weber
1976